This site began in 1997 to promote the consumer/business bestseller Dancing With Lawyers: How to Take Charge and Get Results – a book focused on getting the desired results from lawyers and law firms. I added some legal articles I™d written for newspapers, and fleshed out some emails into online articles and information, linked from the left-side column, including one article about defamation.

Lose respect for the lawyer when the bill is too low – a $500 bill means this is a $500 lawyer; if the customer later has a $5,000 job, they™ll figure it™s too big for him, and go find a $5,000 lawyer. Lose respect for lawyers who make things too simple. Then there are the things lawyers believe all customers want: Reassurance.
