"Written in the Stars" was an excellent sci-fi read! I loved the the author gave a rather descriptive origin of Jada Washington's condition (Kaiser's Syndrome) and how "the glow," Ryland Breese was able to connect with her character even in a wheelchair claiming that he was her mate; now that's true unconditional love and with an alien inquisitor no doubt!

Written is the Stars by Lily Velden is a sweet and refreshingly funny short about being yourself and maybe finding love. This isn't an insta-love story. It isn't about two perfect individuals who are perfect for each other.

Written in the Stars is the story of my heart. While Naila's story is entirely fictional, her struggles were inspired by real life events from situations my own childhood friends went through and from stories I saw in the news about girls from all over the world forced into marriages they didn't want.
